THE CLASS OF 1969
DEDICATES THEIR YEARBOOK TO
JOSEPH S. JENNETTE

IRVING H. AGARD
Superintendent of Schools

EDWARD R. O'CONNOR
Assistant Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 1969

Congratulations as a class and as members of the Class of 1969 for your record of achievement at Wachusett Regional High School. We are proud of you and somewhat envious of the opportunities and challenges you face.

As you establish yourselves in our demanding and competitive society, we believe you will recognize the importance and value of the guidance and instruction you received here. We have tried to encourage you to think and make sound decisions. We have tried to instill an appreciation of the relationship between freedom and responsibility, and between the rights of individuals and those of the community. We hope you will continue to work for and support programs designed to improve conditions through lawful means. Your opportunities are exciting and we believe your preparation is sound.

NEAL T. SKILLINGS
Principal

To the Members of the Class of 1969

"Best of luck to you in the future." This is an expression frequently heard, particularly at graduation time. While, certainly, no one is opposed to good fortune, there are many of you who have already assured yourselves of future good luck. If you have taken full advantage of all the outstanding facilities here at Wachusett, if you have been attentive to your teachers and worked to your full capacity, if you have participated in extracurricular activities, if you have attended classes regularly and have not been a major disciplinary problem — you don't need any "luck" to get ahead in the world after you leave high school. You are well prepared for whatever may come.

When you leave Wachusett, you will be sorely missed by those who remain here. However, we would not want to interfere with your continued progress.

My very best wishes to each of you in your days ahead. Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

Neal T. Skillings

IN MEMORY OF JOHN HEANEY

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

IMPRESSIONS

THE DECLINE AND FALL OF THE CLASS OF 1969

Ah yes, our freshman year! It doesn't seem that long ago that all 368 of us stumbled into Wachusett, the usual self-conscious underclassmen. The boys changed from white to dark-colored socks and what self-respecting girl would be caught without her Weejeens and textured stockings? The carefully planned date of "The Freshman Dance" just happened to coincide with that of a dance sponsored by the senior class at the Chaffins Men's Club. Our Freshman Dance was so successful that it was responsible for the abolition of all future freshman dances.

Next came the year of being an upper-underclassman, quite an honor in the eyes of those below. We still remained a bit reserved with the elders of Wachusett but would stride with confidence through the freshman corridors. This was the year of rebellion on the hill. A demonstration was staged and one-half of the student body sat on the front lawn in protest of the rearranged final exam schedule.

The arrival of our junior year brought in even greater prestige. This was our year of rest, relaxation, and freedom from toting of gym clothes. It also was a year for the starting of traditions. It was the year of the first teacher-varsity basketball game. The notable pajama-clad intellectuals of the faculty suffered an undeserved loss but were not to be discouraged. Wachusett shall ever remain immortal in the eyes of those who saw Wachusett Highlights 1968, 1969, . . .

We now comprise the most envied position in the school, that of the senior class, which was slightly marred by the unexpected "pleasure" of gym twice a week. School spirit soared to an unprecedented high as the "Green Machine" tried its hardest and very often succeeded. The senior play was a smash hit! Looking to the future, we are confident that the members of our class will carry on in our illustrious tradition.

IMPRESSIONS

Who Can Forget:

Spin the bar in science classes?
When Miss Morrissey ran the football field?
The class that was left in the reading lab during a firedrill?
Mr. Skillings saying, "I'm sorry to interrupt," and then interrupting again?
The "preparatory ski exercises" for those who don't ski?
The whistling window in 127?
The Wednesday night movies?
The time we made a touchdown for the visiting team?
The World Problems created in those classes?
When someone threw their applesauce across the cafeteria?
Chip Shibley's chemistry project?
The flying saucers that looked suspiciously like peanut butter cookies?
Aunt Minnie and Uncle Maxie?
The Awards assemblies?
The class of "68's" snapping turtle?
The PomPom girls?
The tires on the flagpole?
The vacation schedule?
The helicoptors that fly by the window in 202?
The first male flapper in American History? (How 'bout it George?)
The world premiere of Wachusett Highlights 1968?
J. B.'s mother?
When Peter Smith got thrown into the pond?
The "Sit Out?"
The canceled, not canceled, postponed Ice Blue?
When Mrs. Foley forgot to say "Break"?
Those wet sophomores resulting from a shower fight?
"Lunches" in the basement?
Practice teachers?
The alarm clocks in the lockers?
The tires in the courtyard?
How the senior play prop table collapsed one minute before the curtain went up?
Those "odoriferous" science corridors?
Reiley's Romper Room?
Running to the tower? (Whose got the matches?)
Rosie's Study Hall test?
Rosie?
Running in the snow?
The class of "68's" snakes on the loose?
"Snake" on the loose?
Wearing sweaters in Mr. Griffin's tests?
The day we had no school because someone turned off the water?
John P. in knickers and Kathy Z. in her maxie?
St. Nicholas day in 202?

Who Can Forget:

Young Tom Turkey?
The Guns of Navaronne (A real saga)?
Music over the P.A. during homeroom period?
Hockey team practice on Wachusett Pond?
Swimming in gym class?
Mr. White's clipboard at lunch time?
'''Tension, please!''?
The Pepsi Boy of Office #8?
Mr. Theriault's laugh?
The Green Machine?
Bananas in the refrigerator?
The long lunch lines on Thanksgiving and Christmas?
The 21 gun salute from across the street?

Can You Imagine:

Hearing the announcements!
The bells ringing on schedule!
The bells ringing!
The field hockey team losing a game!
Colby without an opinion!
Steve D. happy with something!
Wachusett without Wayne!
Anyone going to the library for a book!
Debby H. without nerve!
Phil S. coming to school on the day a critique is due!
Scott W. not trying harder!
Dalé L. not being witty!
Mr. Theriault's students having any ideas to kick around!
Mr. Ljunberg forgetting the 1812 Overture!
Larry G. speaking gramatically correct English!
Mr. Bouvier losing his smile!
Letting school interfere with your education!
Mr. Skillings teaching a speech course!
A Saturday night without a C. R. & R. meeting!
Mrs. Owen without sunglasses!
Mrs. Erikson saying what she wants to in one brief sentence.

It Wouldn't be Wachusett:

If the roof didn't leak during storms.
Without Mr. Williams.
Without "Cold Heat."
If the lunches were delicious.
Without D-Hall.
Without Mr. Brackeen's soul.
If no one cheered when someone broke a milk bottle.
Without "Las Vagas Lengas" and his World Series Club.
If anyone agreed with the Administration.
If anyone came to the school dances.
If they didn't repeat everything on the P.A.
If Peggy A. talked back to a teacher.
If Janet P.'s pictures didn't have to be censored.

It Wouldn't be Wachusett:

Study hall in the auditorium.
If there weren't an Inner Sanctum.
If all the clocks were on time.
If cars didn't get in the way of buses.
If you didn't have to move along.
Without Mrs. Coughlin's music on Friday.

A Senior is Someone Who:

Knows how to get by all the monitors without a pass.
Knows how to cut the lunch lines without being caught.
Spends half of his time in the Guidance Office and the other half asleep.
Fixes the phone at home before skipping.
Can fake an injury in gym class and get away with it.
Can find an excuse when there is no excuse.
Is best acquainted with Mrs. Brown.
Can tell you what the gut courses are.
Developes an ulcer between Feb. 1st and April 15th.
Knows how to sleep in class and get away with it.
Knows better than to buy lunch at Wachusett, but is too lazy to bring it.
Is always resourceful.
Knows which Girls rooms aren't checked for smokers.
Is alergic to homework.
Is always in a state of confusion.
Has the privilege of walking into homeroom at 8:11 A.M.
Is an expert at doing things he shouldn't.
Goes to school in order to recover from the weekends.
Puts off today what he can't do tomorrow.
Isn't stupid enough to be afraid of the student teachers.
Knows how to lean on his locker.
Puts up signs without checking first with Mr. Bowes.

Miscellaneous

Is there any committee to which Miss Army doesn't belong?
It's not everyone who has his own "private bathroom" in his locker, Raymond!
Do Kathie D. and Diane G. measure up to their medals?

Would you believe it's over!?!

THE BEST? OF AREA OFFICE 8

Chances are that at one time or another during the course of the year, each senior stopped by the yearbook office — spacious Area Office #8. Many students of our class made some direct contribution to this book. We believe that a yearbook reflects the spirit of the class it represents. Completion of this work was a cooperative effort on the part of the entire Class of 1969. Our yearbook commemorates four eventful years of learning and maturing. We dedicate page 102 to US!

Be that as it may, those of us responsible for laying out the book goofed on the paging. This is "pure filler," but so what. All seniors are masters at saying nothing in as many words as possible. Interjecting a word of wisdom, if you don't pick it up today, it'll be there tomorrow.
